The Woman's Tonic

Japanese Denied Luxuries.
The most expensive single fruit in the Japanese fruit stores is the natsukan, a species of grapefruit (Citrus decumana), which sells throughout the winter for 7½ cents each. These are not eaten in great quantities by the class of people who make the great fruit-buying population in the United States. The average income of the Japanese family of four is about $150 a year. This sum does not leave much margin for the purchase of luxuries.

Question of Height.
Lady Southwark, in her recently published reminiscences, tells a story of an Irishman who was cutting turf near a bog when a friend came up to him, crying: "Patrick is stuck in the bog up to his ankles." "Don't worry, then," was the reply; "if he's only up to his ankles he can soon get out again!" "Yes, but he went in head first!" retorted the other.—Pearson's Weekly.

To Cure a Cold.
Coughs and Colds—An ordinary cold can often be checked in the first stages by inducing a good perspiration. A glass of very hot milk drunk at or you are in bed, or the juice of a lemon added to a tumbler of boiling water, will often accomplish this. A hot bath to which a little ammonia has been added is another method.

To Seal Bottles.
Bottles may be securely sealed in the following manner: Melt together a quarter of a pound of sealing wax, the same quantity of resin and two ounces of beeswax. When the mixture froths, stir it with a tallow candle. As soon as each ingredient is melted, dip the tops of the corked bottles in the mixture. It will completely exclude the air.

Easily Gauged.
Johnny was sent to the cellar to draw a pitcher of cider. When he got back the guest commended him. "You must have good judgment to have filled the pitcher so accurately in the dark without running it over." "Aw, that ain't hard," replied Johnny. "Ter see, when the cider got up to the first joint of my thumb I stopped."

Not a Pleasant Occupation.
A citizen who believes that a certain thing should be done called at the Globe office and said, "You can scold the people into doing it." But we do not wish to become a common scold. People are becoming tired of having others tell them what they should do.—Atchison Globe.

Really Beyond Help.
Confucius, the Chinese philosopher, though he lived nearly 2,500 years ago, said many things that are true today, among them this: "When a man has been helped around one corner of a square and cannot manage the other three, he is unworthy of future assistance."

Was Looking for It, Too.
"I say, my friend," called the motorist to the farmer, as he drew up along side of the field. "I'm looking for a decent road to take me into Squigglesville." "I'm durned glad to hear it," replied the farmer. "Ef ye happen to find it, stranger, send me a telegram, will ye?"

In the Ranks of Unreasonables.
"Wasn't there something about a promise to love, honor, and obey me in that marriage ceremony?" asked Mr. Meekton. "My goodness, Leondas! You are like some of those politicians who never quit talking about a party platform."—Washington Star.

The Lure of the Cash.
"Why have you abandoned the stage?" "I haven't left it, but I'm so busy signing soap testimonials, hair-restorer ads and indorsements for piano players and safety razors that I really haven't time to rehearse properly."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Daily Thought.
"Patience . . . and have faith and thy prayer will be answered."—Longfellow.

As Poor Richard Says.
A penny saved is two pence clear, a gin a day is a groat a year. Save and have.

After house-cleaning

freshen up your floors with

Kyanize

Don't use a floor finish which will leave unsightly worn spots after a little wear. Kyanize is made especially to stand the scuff and tread of heavy shoes, without cracking, peeling, or turning white. It is a cooked finish, instead of a mere mixture.

Kyanize also makes a beautiful, sanitary, most durable finish for furniture and all woodwork about the house.

Seven artistic colors, and clear; also white enamel
Come in and get a small can of Kyanize and give it a trial. The makers guarantee it absolutely, and so do we.
